

Chris Isaak

The Table Mountain Concert Series Presented by Bud Light, Toyota & Comcast

The Big Fresno Fair is delighted to welcome American rock singer-songwriter, Chris Isaak, to the Paul Paul Theater, Friday, October 9th. Known for his contemporary love ballads and entertaining performances, this is a show you don't want to miss!

Born and raised in Stockton, California, Chris Isaak is one of the last true American rock artists built in the Elvis Presley mold. His music hits a chord tapping into all ranges of human emotion as he explores the good, the bad and the ugly of love. Isaak released his debut album, Silverstone, in 1985. The album was met with critical acclaim and was carried by the hit singles "Gone Ridin'" and "Livin' for your Lover." "Wicked Game," off of Isaak's third album Heart Shaped World, swept the nation in the early 90's and became a Billboard Top 10 hit. The music video for the song became an instant hit on MTV and VH1. "Wicked Game" placed fourth on Blender Magazine's 25 Sexiest Music Videos of all-time and 73rd on Rolling Stone's list of Greatest Music Videos ever. Isaak recently released his 13th album, the appropriately titled Mr. Lucky, to rave reviews. The album features 14 new tracks including duets with Trisha Yearwood and Michelle Branch.

In recent years, Chris Isaak has expanded into an all-around entertainer adding numerous movie and television appearances to his credit. He is also the host of his own variety/talk show on A&E's Biography channel, "The Chris Isaak Hour." The show combines music interviews and performances with Isaak's wry sense of humor. It is Isaak's second foray into television: he starred in Showtime's critically acclaimed musical comedy "The Chris Isaak Show" from 2001 to 2004. Isaak starred as himself along with some of the actual members of his band, and the episode plots were based on fictional accounts of the backstage world of the band.

With a career spanning nearly a quarter century, Chris Isaak has cemented his spot in the hierarchy of American Pop Rock musicians. Don't miss your chance to see Chris Isaak live in concert at The Big Fresno Fair on Friday, October 9th.
